

ST. REGIS BORA BORA LAUNCHES “EXTREME ADRENALINE ADVENTURE” PACKAGE FOR THE THRILL-SEEKING TRAVELER

Los Angeles, CA - March 22, 2017 - The St. Regis Bora Bora will launch an all-new "Extreme Adrenaline Adventure" package this spring, offering resort guests the chance to partake in a day of activities sure to spike the adrenaline. The package includes snorkeling with sharks and rays, a fast-paced jet ski tour around Bora Bora, and a choice of parasailing or skydiving followed by dinner at Lagoon Restaurant.

The package is available from April 1, 2017 and pricing starts at $1,775 per couple.

SNORKELING WITH SHARKS AND RAYS

Guests are whisked away from the comfort of the resort on a handmade pirogue, a small wooden canoe, captained by a local Polynesian expert. The adventure will include various stops to snorkel with eagle rays and sharks.

FAST-PACED JET SKI TOUR

Following the shark and ray encounter, adventurers will embark on a jet ski tour around the island at racing speed. A local guide will uncover special spots throughout the island tour, and make a stop in shallow water to take a break complete with a fresh fruit snack.

PARASAILING or SKYDIVING

Participants choose between parasailing and skydiving as the final component of the "Extreme Adrenaline Adventure" package and perhaps the most exhilarating. Daredevils will soar high above the breathtaking Bora Bora lagoon and Mount Otemanu, catching the best views from hundreds of feet up in the sky.

DINNER AT LAGOON RESTAURANT BY JEAN-GEORGES

Following an exhilarating day of heart-pumping activities, guests can unwind with dinner at Lagoon Restaurant by Jean-Georges, the St. Regis Bora Bora Resort's exclusive signature restaurant. Considered by many as Bora Bora's top dining experience, guests can choose from a dinner menu that includes the popular Uravena fish. Lagoon Restaurant is the only restaurant in French Polynesia to offer this fish because of the extreme difficulty of preparation.
