

ST. REGIS BORA BORA RESORT RE-LAUNCHES BRIDAL BOUTIQUE WITH NEW COUTURE DESIGNS FROM POLYNESIAN DESIGNER, HANI HARING

Los Angeles, CA - August 8, 2017 - The St. Regis Bora Bora Resort announces the new partnership with renowned local designer, Hani Haring, as they offer a custom line of HH Creations bridal gowns in the recently re-launched Bridal Boutique.

As the only resort in French Polynesia with an on-site Bridal Boutique that affords guests the option to purchase a wedding dress for ceremonies, the St. Regis Bora Bora Resort has collaborated with Hani Haring to offer a new Polynesian-inspired line. Her distinctive creations blend grace and delicacy using luxurious fabrics such as Italian silk and French lace embellished with Tahitian black pearl and mother of pearl accents. Since debuting her first couture bridal collection in 2011, Hani Haring has become a celebrated local designer invited to prestigious Fashion Week events internationally.

“We are pleased to now offer my bridal collection at such an iconic resort in Bora Bora,” Haring said. “Each piece is handmade and created locally at our workshop in Moorea, so in addition to choosing an existing gown at the Bridal Boutique, guests can pre-order custom selections that will be delivered to their villa upon arrival.”

Browse the regularly updated selection, specially curated for The Bridal Boutique, with easy tailoring made possible within 48 hours at the atelier based in the nearby island of Moorea. Brides may choose to work with Hani Haring directly to customize the dress in advance by specifying their preferred style, length, fabric and embellishments. Elegant resort wear pieces are also on display at The Bridal Boutique for a colorful island-chic look to complement the wedding day.

To celebrate the new partnership with Hari Haning, the St. Regis Bora Bora Resort is offering “A Tahitian Idyll” wedding package through December 31, 2017 to stir up wedding wanderlust in the

About Hani Haring:

Hani Haring was born in Tahiti and raised in Moorea. Dancing and making traditional costumes, as well as local crafts, have always been her passion. At age 18, she participated and won the creators contest, Vahine Tahiti, for two consecutive years. This experience in fashion encouraged her to continue her studies at the Higher Institute of Applied Arts in Paris.

The young graduate had the chance to rub shoulders with fashion houses such as Maxime Simoens and Jean-Charles de Castelbajac, who were and still are a real source of inspiration.

HH Creations was born on November 11, 2011 and offers lines of ready-made crafts, designed and handmade exclusively on Moorea. In early 2013, HH Creations joined forces with artistic director Benjamin Schétrit to install the first fashion house in Moorea, creating collections that were not only chic and comfortable, but Polynesian inspired.
