SOUTH HARBOR INN OPENS MAY 10TH BRINGING LUXURY HOSPITALITY TO LONG ISLAND'S NORTH FORK

Southold, New York, April 24, 2019 – On May 10, 2019, the South Harbor Inn will open its doors to guests looking for an elegant, welcoming haven on Long Island's North Fork. Conveniently located within walking distance to Southold's charming hamlet founded in 1640, South Harbor Inn is perfectly situated for enjoying local beaches, bays, wineries, restaurants and the expansive countryside that has made the North Fork a popular year-round vacation retreat. Originally built as a cross gable style farmhouse in 1897, the house has been meticulously transformed into a stylish 4-bedroom inn featuring elegantly sophisticated décor and luxuriously appointed en-suite bedrooms with Frette linens, featherweight duvets and Diptyque amenities. The inn's welcoming public areas offer both convivial gathering spots and cozy nooks to be enjoyed year-round.

Hosts Alex Azcona and Dan DeVito are no strangers to the hotel business. Each has over 25 years of luxury hospitality experience working at top luxury brands including Four Seasons, Mandarin Oriental, and Baccarat. Having been home owners on the North Fork for many years, Alex and Dan saw opening South Harbor Inn as an opportunity to combine their hospitality expertise with their passions for the North Fork, interior design and entertaining.

“For years we’ve been inspired and captivated by the North Fork,” said owners Alex Azcona and Dan DeVito. “It’s a dream come true to be able to introduce guests to Southold’s small town charm, delicious local restaurants and wineries, and the
